

SERIGO ALIGHIERI
DAL 1353

Bellovile

TOSCANA IGT

Born among the Tuscan hills of Cinigiano in Poderi Bellovile, this wine marks the return of Dante's descendants to their native region. Respect for organic production methods has yielded a superb red wine with a rich bouquet of berries and licorice notes.

GRAPE VARIETIES

Sangiovese, Canaiolo, Ciliegiolo.

TASTING NOTES

Look: deep ruby red with violet reflections.

Nose: strong berry fruit and licorice.

Palate: firm and richly fruity, but soft and well-balanced at the same time. Plums and sweet spices. Delicate with a long finish.

FOOD PAIRING

A big wine, but very versatile at table thanks to its extreme softness. Goes well with fresh cheeses, pasta dishes with meat sauce, roast, especially lamb, seitan skewers and grilled vegetables.

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 18° C

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 13% vol.

SHELF LIFE: Potential for medium to long ageing

The purchase of the "Poderi del Bello Ovile" vineyards, marks the return of this aristocratic family to their native land after dedicating more than 650 years to viticulture and winemaking in Valpolicella.

The name of the holding and the wine is a reference to the passage in Dante's "Divine Comedy" where the exiled poet dreams.
