

SEREGO ALIGHIERI
DAL 1353

Possessioni

GARGANEGA E SAUVIGNON DEL VENETO IGT

Unique type of Venetian white wine in which the intense aromas of Sauvignon are paired with the elegance of Garganega, which provides its characteristically long aftertaste with an almondy twist on the finish.

GRAPE VARIETIES

Garganega, Sauvignon.

TASTING NOTES

Look: pale straw yellow with light green reflections.

Nose: typical Sauvignon fruitiness with hints of pears.

Palate: good structure balanced with refreshing acidity, and a dry finish.

FOOD PAIRING

Excellent aperitif. Good with antipasti, fish dishes, summer foods, pizza, salads, salami and white meat.

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 8-10° C

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 12,5% vol.

SHELF LIFE: 3 years

750
ml

In 1353, Pietro, son of the Supreme Poet Dante Alighieri, bought his first lands in Gargagnago, in the heart of the Valpolicella Classica region. Since then, the noble Serego Alighieri family has handed down its love for this land and its wines over the generations. Intense, perfumed and aromatic, Possessioni is the house white of the Conti Serego Alighieri.

