

SEREGO ALIGHIERI
DAL 1353

Possessioni ROSSO VERONA IGT

Possessioni is a full-bodied, fruity wine, made with Corvina, Molinara and Sangiovese, grown on estates in memory of the family's Tuscan origins.

GRAPE VARIETIES

Corvina, Molinara (Serego Alighieri clone), Sangiovese.

TASTING NOTES

Look: lively, ruby red.

Nose: typical cherry aromas, with a slight touch of liquorice.

Palate: well-structured with good acidity and intense aromas of ripe cherries. Long finish with hints of resinated wood.

FOOD PAIRING

Elegant wine suitable for the whole meal. Particularly good with red meat and moderately aged cheeses.

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 18° C
ALCOHOLIC CONTENT: 13% vol.
STORAGE LIFE: 8-10 years

750
ml

In 1353, Pietro, son of the Supreme Poet Dante Alighieri, bought his first lands in Gargagnago, in the heart of the Valpolicella Classica region. Since then, the noble Serego Alighieri family has handed down its love for this land and its wines over the generations. Possessioni, a fruity and spicy wine, is the house red of the Conti Serego Alighieri.

