

SEREGO ALIGHIERI

TASTING OPERA AT POSSESSIONI SEREGO ALIGHIERI

Stay at Possessioni Serego Alighieri, taste the wines of the family, and listen to famous operatic arias in a location that's packed with history and culture. Belonging to descendants of Dante the Poet since 1353, the Possessioni estate boasts a Foresteria guest-house surrounded by vineyards and olive groves with eight apartments decorated in elegant, country-house style. The tour of the historic winery cellars with their fragrant cherry-wood barrels and beautiful drying loft for grape appassimento finishes with a tasting of fine wines, including the famous Vaio Armaron Amarone.

And in the evening, there's an exclusive event to enjoy, linking fine music with the great wines of the Valpolicella region. Passion for quality is the common factor, with famous arias by Verdi, De Curtis, Rossini and Gounod to listen to, and the best Serego Alighieri wines in your glass, to show the link with this wonderful region. The concert is led by Maestro Gerardo Felisatti on the pianoforte, accompanied by soprano Sonia Peruzzo and baritone Andrea Cortese. It's followed by dinner, with food expertly prepared by Chef Vitangelo Galluzzi.
